Horizon High School's Perot Named KNIX Teacher of the Week

Horizon High School's Yvonne Perot was named KNIX Teacher of the Week for the week of February 25. KNIX visited Horizon's campus and surprised her "live on the radio" with this award and prizes.

Perot said, "I was completely surprised when the administrative team and members of KNIX radio came into my classroom and presented me with the award which included some terrific prizes and cash. I'm deeply touched by this award and honored to be a teacher at Horizon."

Perot, a member of the English Department, has been teaching at Horizon for the past seven years. After over 20 years in the corporate world, she changed careers and became a teacher. With a bachelor's and master's degrees, she is currently pursuing her doctorate at Grand Canyon University.

KNIX's Teacher of the Week program, sponsored by Fulton Homes, selects a teacher from letters submitted by their students. Zach White, an AP English student, wrote the letter nominating Perot.
