FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Horizon's 56th St. Players Presents The Iliad, The Odyssey and all of Greek Mythology in 99 Minutes or Less!

Horizon High School's 56th St. Players and Department of Drama will present The Iliad, The Odyssey and all of Greek Mythology in 99 Minutes or Less! by Jay Hopkins and John Hunter. The show runs from Thursday, December 1 to Saturday, December 3 with performances at 7:30 p.m. in the Horizon Auditorium located at 5601 E. Greenway Road.

In this hilarious spoof of all the classic stories, a few actors play the many roles of mythology. Each actor playing a god of Olympus begins the show on a simple stage, with the clock ticking in front of everyone's eyes, as the cast speeds through all of Greek Mythology. It is funny, updated, and made easy to understand.

The gods do everything from walking the Red Carpet to having love stories on a dating show along with two of the greatest stories every told, The Iliad and The Odyssey. All the silly decisions, the absurd destinies, and the goofy characters are presented lightning-bolt fast with hysterical results as the clock is stopped with only seconds to spare.

Tickets will be on sale at the box office for $7.00 general seating.

In support of the production, the Ceramics Department will be hosting the Greek Clay Olympics on Thursday, December 1 from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Horizon Quad.
